Important Message: Worldpay will be sending a summary box with charging and contractual information each month that can be used to compare services with other providers for you to find the best deal. This will soon be included at the head of the invoice. We are required to provide this information by the Payments System Regulator. Please look out for communication headed Summary Box.

If you have any questions, please contact your normal point of contact or the phone number located on your monthly invoice, and we'll be happy to assist you.

- You can cancel your contract with us by giving us one month's notice.
- You may be able to save money with another provider or find a service that better suit your needs.
- You'll find information about your current contract in the card payments summary on your invoice and your account dashboard. Some providers will give you information in this format on their website, so you can compare services easily.
