4. EXPLANATORY NOTES

- 1. A separate confirmation must be completed for each customer (e.g. joint holders, trustee cases and joint life cases). Where a third party is involved, e.g. a payer of contributions who is different from the customer, the identity of that person must be verified, and a confirmation
- 2. This form cannot be used to verify the identity of any customer that falls into one of the following categories:
- · those who are exempt from verification as being an existing client of the introducing firm prior to the introduction of the requirement for such verification;
- those who have been subject to simplified due diligence under the Money Laundering Regulations; or
- · those whose identity has been verified using the source of funds as evidence.
