Hello Mr Karim Khimji,

Your electricity and gas bill

We've reviewed your monthly payments to make sure you're paying the right amount for the energy you use.

At a glance

For 31 August 2013 - 20 January 2014 (143 days)

The balance at your last review (4 October 2013)	£172.26 in credit
You paid us (3 payments of £23.00)	£69.00 credit
Charges since your latest readings	£142.95
Your new account balance	£98.31 in credit

We are changing your monthly payment to £26.00

Why?

To calculate your Direct Debit payments, we set an annual billing period and spread your payments evenly over the year. Your annual billing period runs from 10 Sep 13 - 9 Sep 14.

Based on your latest meter readings and our current prices, we now predict your cost for this annual billing period will be £309.45, and your current monthly payment of £23.00 will be too little to cover your balance.

Since you've already paid £102.00 during this annual billing period and we'll take one more payment of £23.00, you have 7 months to pay the remaining £184.45. We're changing your Direct Debit amount to £26.00, starting on 1 Mar 14 to help avoid any build-up of debt by the end of your billing period.
