You need to make sure that all your taxable income and taxable state benefits have been included and are shown correctly. The tax code(s) shown need to match those shown on any payslip(s) / pension advice slip(s) received after 6 April 2016.

If the information is right, you don't need to contact us.

These notes will help you understand how we have worked out your tax code(s)

Note 1	Personal Allowance	This is the standard amount of taxable income most people can have before they start paying Income Tax. If your total income exceeds £100000, your allowance goes down proportionally.
Note 2	Other Earnings	We use your tax-free allowances against your other income so you pay tax on this.
Note 3	Property Income	This is the rental income that you get from property or land. We use your tax-free allowances against this income so you pay tax on this.
Note 4	Untaxed Interest	This is interest paid to you before tax is taken off. We have reduced your tax-free allowance so you pay tax on this income.
Note 5	Dividend Tax	This is to collect the basic rate of tax due on your dividend income.
Note 6	Tax Code L	Shows you are entitled to the standard tax-free Personal Allowance.
Note 7	Tax-free amount	To create your tax code, we've removed the last digit of your tax-free amount and included a letter. If you have more than one source of income, your tax-free amount may be split across these. We tell your employer(s) or pension provider(s) your tax code but we do not tell them how we worked it out. If your total income and taxable state benefits for the year are more than your tax-free amount then you will pay tax as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• at 20% on the first £32000• at 40% on income between £32001 and £150000• at 45% on anything over £150000
