Dear Sir/Madam

LUCY'S KITCHEN LTD

Thank you for your enclosed document. Unfortunately, we have been unable to accept it for the following reason(s):

The date of creation of the charge on the form does not match the date of creation given in the deed.

The charge was not delivered to Companies House within 21 days of the date of creation as required by the Companies Act.

Please note that we can now register the charge only on instruction of an order of court under the Companies Act. The order obtained should ordinarily be for a finite period to reflect the twenty-one-day period that was originally provided for delivery under the Companies Act. Charges delivered out of time with an order of court cannot be filed electronically. Please include an office copy of the order when you return the particulars and deed.

We are returning your filing fee and you will need to include the fee when you resubmit your document.

For further information about court orders, contact your local County Court, the Royal Courts of Justice in London, the Court of Session in Edinburgh or the High Court of Justice (Northern Ireland), Chancery Division (Companies) as appropriate. For further information on charge registration, please use the guidance on our website: www.companieshouse.gov.uk.

Please see our website for guidance on submitting/delivering charge information.

Yours faithfully

Companies House
