News and information

Personal Savings Allowance

Interest will be paid gross from 6 April 2016, which means that you will receive your interest with no tax deducted. This will happen automatically. Most people will no longer need to pay tax on their interest. The first £1,000 of interest for Basic Rate taxpayers (or £500 for Higher Rate taxpayers) per tax year will be tax-free. Any tax payable would need to be paid to HMRC directly. For more information, please visit gov.uk and search for 'Personal Savings Allowance'.

If you need to complete a self-assessment tax return

The Account Summary provides all the interest and tax information about your personal savings and current accounts in one place.
