Change in Circumstances – If we have given you a discount, exemption or you receive assistance through the Council Tax Reduction Scheme you must tell us if your circumstances change or if you think the reduction is incorrect. It is essential that any changes are reported within 21 days to the Council to avoid any overpayment and possible recovery action. If you fail to tell us you may be liable to prosecution and/or a fine.

Privacy Notice – This authority is under a duty to protect the public funds it administers and is required under section 6 of the Audit Commission Act 1998 to participate in the National Fraud Initiative (NFI) data matching exercise. We advise Council Tax payers that the data held by the authority in respect of Council Tax payments and benefits will be used for cross-system and cross-authority comparison purposes for the prevention and detection of fraud. We will also share information where we are required by law or where we have a specific statutory power to do so. For example, in respect of unfurnished vacant dwellings to assist in bringing them back into use, or for statistical and statistical research purposes when requested by the Office for National Statistics. For further information, see www.gedling.gov.uk/DPA

Recovery – It is a strict requirement of the instalment scheme that each instalment is received on or before the date shown on the front of this demand notice. If payment is not made in accordance with this demand notice recovery action will be taken. This could result in your right to pay by instalments being cancelled and the balance of the full year's charge becoming payable
