

SPENCER SKUSE & POTTER

Terms and Conditions of Business

OUR AIM

We aim to offer our clients quality legal advice with a personal service at a fair cost. As a start, we hope it is helpful to you to set out in this statement the basis on which we will provide our professional services.

OUR COMMITMENT TO YOU

We will:

REPRESENT your interests and keep your business confidential.

EXPLAIN to you the legal work that may be required and the prospects of a successful outcome.

MAKE SURE that you understand the likely degree of financial risk that you will be taking on.

ADVISE YOU on tax matters, but only if specifically requested to do so.

KEEP YOU regularly informed of progress or, if there is none, when you are next likely to hear from us.

TRY to avoid using technical legal language when writing to you - tell us when we fail in this aim!

DEAL with your queries promptly, for example, we will always try to return your telephone calls on the same day.

OUR HOURS OF BUSINESS

The normal hours of opening at our offices are between 9.00am and 5.00pm on weekdays. Appointments may be arranged at other times when this is essential.

PEOPLE RESPONSIBLE FOR YOUR WORK

The Partner responsible for dealing with your work will be John Potter. The Secretary who may be able to deal with your queries and who will be pleased to take any message for you is Linda Hancock. We will try to avoid changing the people who handle your work but if this cannot be avoided, we will tell you promptly of any change and why it may be necessary.

The partner of this firm with final responsibility for work done in this department is John Potter.

CHARGES AND EXPENSES

Our charges will be calculated mainly by reference to the time actually spent by the Solicitors and other staff in respect of any work that they do on your behalf. This will include meetings with you and perhaps others, reading and working on papers, correspondence, preparation of any detailed costs calculations, and time spent travelling away from the office when this is necessary.

Routine letters are charged as 6-minute units of time and we charge for the time spent on making and taking telephone calls in 6-minute units and considering incoming letters at units of 3 minutes per page. However, calls made to mobile telephones will be charged at 50p per minute plus V.A.T.

The current hourly rate charged for this matter is £150.00. We will add VAT on these at the rate that applies when the work is done. At present, VAT is 20%.

The hourly rates have to be reviewed periodically to reflect increases in overhead costs and inflation. Normally the rates are reviewed with effect from 1 September each year. If a review is carried out before this matter has been concluded, we will inform you of any variation in the rate before it takes effect.

In addition to the hourly rate charged, we will also charge for any telegraphic transfers sent or received via our bank. Our current charges for this are £25.00 plus VAT for each telegraphic transfer sent and £5.00 plus VAT for each telegraphic transfer received.

In addition to the time spent, we may take into account a number of factors including any need to carry out work outside our normal office hours, the complexity of the issues, the speed at which action has to be taken, any particular specialist expertise when the case may demand. In particular, in property transactions, in the administration of estates and in matters involving a substantial financial value or benefit to a client, a charge reflecting, for example, the price of the property, the size of the estate, or the value of the financial benefit may be considered. It is not always possible to indicate how these aspects may arise but on present information, we would expect them to be sufficiently taken into account in the rates that we have quoted. Where a charge reflecting any value element is to be added we will explain this to you.

Solicitors have to pay out various other expenses on behalf of clients ranging from Land or Probate Registry fees, court fees, experts' fees, and so on. We have no obligation to make such payments unless you have provided us with the funds for that purpose. VAT is payable on certain expenses. We refer to such payments generally as "disbursements". We will require a payment in advance from you in respect of any search fees payable on your transactions.

If, for any reason, this matter does not proceed to completion, we will be entitled to charge you for work done and expenses incurred.

PAYMENT ARRANGEMENTS

Property transactions. We will normally send you our bill following the exchange of contracts and payment is required on a purchase prior to completion; and at completion, on a sale. If sufficient funds are available on completion, and we have sent you a bill, we will deduct our charges and expenses from the funds.

Administration of estates. We will normally submit an interim bill at regular stages during the administration, starting with the obtaining of a Grant. The final account will be prepared when the Estate Accounts are ready for approval.

Other cases or transactions. It is normal practice to ask clients to pay sums of money from time to time on account of the charges and expenses that are expected in the following weeks or months. We find that this helps clients in budgeting for costs as well as keeping them informed of the legal expenses that are being incurred. If such requests are not met with prompt payment, delay in the progress of a case results. In the unlikely event of any bill or request for payment not being met, this firm must reserve the right to stop acting for you further.

Payment is due to us within 14 days of our sending you a bill. Interest will be charged on a daily basis at 4% over NatWest Bank's base rate from time to time from the date of the bill in cases where payment is not made within 14 days of delivery by us of the bill.

OTHER PARTIES' CHARGES AND EXPENSES

In some cases and transactions, a client may be entitled to payment of costs by some other person. It is important that you understand that in such circumstances, the other person may not be required to pay all the charges and expenses that you incur with us. You have to pay our charges and expenses in the first place and any amounts that can be recovered will be a contribution towards them. If the other party is in receipt of legal aid, no costs are likely to be recovered.

The other person will not be liable to pay the VAT element of your costs if you are able to recover the VAT yourself.

If you are successful and a court orders another party to pay some or all of your charges and expenses, interest can be claimed on them from the other party from the date of the court order. We will account to you for such interest to the extent that you have paid our charges or expenses on account, but we are entitled to the rest of that interest.

You will also be responsible for paying our charges and expenses of seeking to recover any costs that the court orders the other party to pay to you.

A client who is unsuccessful in a court case may be ordered to pay the other party's legal charges and expenses. That money would be payable in addition to our charges and expenses. Arrangements can be made to take out insurance to cover liability for such legal expenses. Please discuss this with us if you are interested in this possibility.

CHARGES FOR TELEGRAPHIC TRANSFERS AND CHAPS PAYMENTS AND PAYMENTS IN CASH

A charge of £25.00 plus VAT is made for transferring funds through the banking system and £5.00 plus VAT for funds transferred directly into our accounts. This disbursement will be in addition to the legal costs quoted or estimated. We will charge you the banking charge that we incur in the event of cheques credited to your account with us being dishonoured.

We prefer that clients do not pay money to us in cash in excess of £500.00. In cases where a client wishes to pay money to us in cash, we need at least two working days prior notice in cases where the cash sum exceeds this amount.

INTEREST PAYMENT

Under the Solicitors Accounts (Deposit Interest) Rules, solicitors are liable to pay their clients interest on moneys held by the Solicitor on their behalf in the circumstances set out in the Rules. We normally hold our client's moneys in a general client account with NatWest Bank and we account to clients for interest at the rate paid from time to time on a deposit account by NatWest Bank. If we hold moneys upon which interest is liable to be paid, we make a minimum charge of £30.00 plus Vat for calculating the interest and maintaining necessary records in respect of the interest as required by the Inland Revenue and the Solicitors Accounts (Deposit Interest) Rules. In calculating interest due to you in respect of moneys held in an "undesignated" account we shall work on the basis that 7 days notice of withdrawal shall be allowed and that funds received will take 5 working days to clear, unless received in cash or by direct bank transfer to our client account.

If however clients instruct us in writing, moneys liable to earn interest can be held in a separate "designated" account. If you require us to open a separate designated deposit account, this will be subject to the same minimum charge of £30.00 plus VAT.

Where a Client obtains borrowing from a lender in a property transaction, we will ask the lender to arrange that the loan cheque is received by us a minimum of 4 working days prior to the completion date. If the money can be telegraphed, we will request that we receive it the day before completion. This will enable us to ensure that the necessary funds are available in time for completion. Such clients need to be aware that the lender may charge interest from the date of issue of their loan cheque or the telegraphing of the payment.

STORAGE OF PAPERS AND DOCUMENTS

After completion of the work, we are entitled to keep all papers and documents while there is money owing to us for our charges and expenses. In addition, we will keep your file of papers for you in storage for not less than 1 year. After that, storage is on the clear understanding that we have the right to destroy it after such period as we consider reasonable or to make a charge for storage if we ask you to collect your papers and you fail to do so. We will not of course destroy any documents such as Wills, Deeds, and other securities, which you ask us to hold in safe custody. NO charge will be made to you for such storage unless prior notice in writing is given to you of a charge to be made from a future date that may be specified in that notice.

If we retrieve papers or documents from storage in relation to continuing or new instructions to act in connection with your affairs, we will not normally charge for such retrieval. However, we may make a charge based on time spent for producing stored papers or documents to you or another at your request. We may also charge for reading, correspondence or other work necessary to comply with your instructions.

CHANGES IN THE LAW AND CRITICAL DATES

Once your case is finished we cannot accept on-going responsibility for reminding you of changes in the Law which might affect you (even where we continue to store deeds, wills or other documents on your behalf) or of future critical dates. For example, we cannot accept on-going responsibility to remind you of such matters as rent review dates, lease renewals, the exercise of options, the service of notices and counter-notices within time limits and the like.

SECURITY AND MONEY LAUNDERING

(i) Clarification of Client Identity

We are by law required to satisfy ourselves as to the identity of our new clients. This is also frequently a requirement of banks and building societies in their instructions to us regarding mortgage advances or similar matters. Accordingly, it will be necessary for you to produce acceptable evidence of identity and also of your address.

The following are types of documents that can act as evidence of identity:

- (a) full current signed passport;
- (b) EEA member state identity card;
- (c) Residence permit issued by the Home Office to EEA Nationals on sight of their own country passport;
- (d) Current UK or EEA photo-card driving licence;
- (e) Current full UK driving licence;
- (f) Benefit book or original notification letter from the Benefits Agency confirming the right to benefits;
- (g) Firearms or shotgun certificate;
- (h) National identity card containing your photograph.

Please note that this is not an exhaustive list of documents that can act as evidence of identity. In the context of transactions involving a mortgage, different lenders have different requirements and you should therefore check with us as to what evidence will be required for that individual lender.

For non-quoted private companies and other organisations, we require the evidence set out above for two of the Directors/Company Secretary/Partners or other persons authorised to act on behalf of the organisation.

Information held by this firm is subject to the provision of the Data Protection legislation but please note that, as with most other users, we utilise a non-encrypted email system.

(ii) Clarification of Client Address

The following is a list of examples of suitable documentary evidence of address for UK resident private individuals:

- (a) recent utility bill or statement;
- (b) local Council Tax bill for the current year;
- (c) current full UK driving licence;
- (d) bank, building society or credit union statement or passbook containing the current address;
- (e) recent original mortgage statement from a recognised lender;
- (f) a solicitor's letter confirming recent house purchase or Land Registry confirmation of address;
- (g) local council or housing association rent card or tenancy agreement;
- (h) benefit book or original notification letter from the Benefits Agency confirming the right to benefits;
- (i) Inland Revenue self-assessment statement or tax demand;
- (j) house or motor insurance certificate.

Please note that this is not an exhaustive list of documents that can act as evidence of address.

(iii) Persons Not Resident in the UK

There are additional considerations that may apply in respect of individuals who are not resident in the UK, students and minors and those acting in a representative capacity.

(iv) Corporate Clients

For non-quoted private companies and other organisations, we require the evidence of identity and address for two of the directors/company secretary/partners or other persons authorised to act on behalf of the organisation. We also require a copy of the Certificate of Incorporation, a list of directors, a list of shareholders and the registered address. In respect of a partnership, we will require evidence of the identity and address of the partner instructing us.

(v) The Proceeds of Crime Act 2002 and the Money Laundering Regulations 2003

As has been explained in a Notice given to you, this new law has the effect of overriding the solicitor's duty of confidentiality in circumstances where the solicitor knows or suspects that he or she is involved in any activity, including dealing, transferring or holding money including the proceeds from any criminal activity. If we, as solicitors, know, suspect or have reasonable grounds to know or suspect that we are assisting or being involved in the laundering of the proceeds of any criminal conduct, then we are obliged under the law to make an "authorised disclosure" of information to the National Criminal Intelligence Service ("NCIS"). The disclosure is "authorised" by the Proceeds of Crime Act and the Money Laundering Regulations. It is a potentially imprisonable offence for us to fail to make such disclosure. It is also a criminal offence for us, as solicitors, to "tip off" our client or clients that we have made such a disclosure.

(vi) Our liability to you in the event of us having to make a disclosure to the NCIS

In the event that we make an authorised disclosure to the NCIS, it is possible that delay or other detriment may be caused to your transaction by that disclosure. You must accept that the delay or detriment has been caused by our complying with our duty under the law and that compliance with that duty does not constitute negligence or breach of contract on our part. You must accept that no liability will attach to this firm in respect of such delay or detriment caused directly or indirectly by the authorised disclosure whether or not any action by the NCIS or other authorities resulted from that disclosure.

(vii) Policies relation to Money Laundering

In order to reduce the possible incidence of making disclosures to the NCIS, we, as a firm, will not accept payments in cash (whether to our office or directly into our bank account) of more than £500.00, nor will we accept payments of any kind from any unknown or unidentified third party. Furthermore, at the conclusion of a transaction, we will not be prepared to send funds to any unknown or unidentified third party.

LIMITATION ON OUR LIABILITY TO YOU

We are insured by our professional indemnity insurers in respect of incidents of professional negligence. Our liability to you in respect of such matters is limited to £2 million. In the event that you wish to extend our potential liability for your transaction, you will need to contact us in writing and negotiate specific written terms as to that extended liability.

You should be aware that this firm's liability to persons other than our clients is, in all circumstances, limited to the figure stated above.

You should be aware that this firm's liability to persons other than our clients is, in all circumstances, limited to the figure stated above.

TERMINATION

You may terminate your instructions to us in writing at any time but we will be entitled to keep all your papers and documents while there is money owing to us for our charges and expenses. If at any stage, you do not wish us to continue doing work and/or incurring charges and expenses on your behalf, you must tell us this clearly in writing.

If we decide to stop acting for you, for example if you do not pay an interim bill or comply with the request for a payment on account, we will tell you the reason and give you notice in writing.

LIMITED COMPANIES

When accepting instructions to act on behalf of a limited company, we may require a Director and/or controlling shareholder to sign a form of personal guarantee in respect of the charges and expenses of this firm. If such a request is refused, we will be entitled to stop acting and to require immediate payment of our charges on an hourly basis and expenses as set out earlier.

TAX ADVICE

Any work that we do for you may involve tax implications or necessitate the consideration of tax planning strategies. We may not be qualified to advise you on the tax implications of a transaction that you instruct us to carry out, or the likelihood of them arising. If you have any concerns in this respect, please raise them with us immediately. If we can undertake the research necessary to resolve the issue, we will do so and advise you accordingly. If we cannot, we may be able to identify a source of assistance for you.

COMMUNICATION BETWEEN YOU AND US

Our aim is to offer all our clients an efficient and effective service at all times. We hope that you will be pleased with the work we do for you. However, should there be any aspect of our service with which you are unhappy, please raise your concern in the first place with Graeme Skuse. If you still have queries or concerns, please contact our Client Care Partner, Mr John Potter, to whom any final difficulty can be reported. If you have made a complaint, we will acknowledge receipt within seven days of receiving the said complaint. This acknowledgment will indicate what action will be done and the timescale within which the action may be expected to be done. We shall keep a separate record of your complaint and all further contact in relation to it through to its conclusion. If you are still dissatisfied with the response to your complaint, we shall provide you with contact details of the Legal Complaints Service.

We will aim to communicate with you by such a method as you may request. We may need to virus check discs or email. Unless you withdraw consent, we will communicate with others when appropriate by email or fax but we cannot be responsible for the security of correspondence and documents sent by email or fax.

The Data Protection Act requires us to advise you that your particulars are held on our database. We may, from time to time, use these details to send you information that we think might be of interest to you.

HOW YOU CAN HELP US

You can help us to do our best for you by telling us what we need to know and providing information and documents when we ask for them. Please tell us at the start what you expect of us so that we can agree with you what is possible to achieve. If you have personal time limits or targets that would not be obvious to us please let us know so that we can do our best to work towards them. If you do not understand anything we have discussed or written to you about, please tell us as soon as possible.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF BUSINESS

Unless otherwise agreed, and subject to the application of the current hourly rates, these Terms and Conditions of Business shall apply to any future instructions given by you to this firm.

Although your continuing instructions in this matter will amount to an acceptance of these Terms and Conditions of Business, it may not be possible for us to start work on your behalf until one copy of them has been returned to us for us to keep on our file.

I have read and understood, and I accept these Terms and Conditions of Business.
