Your plan summary

We've sent this statement to help you review your plan for retirement.

This page summarises the key information about your plan. The rest of the statement gives you more detailed information.

Single payments, transfer payments or instructions given to us up to 3 working days before your yearly statement date may not be included in your current and forecast final plan values. These payments are however included in the payments sections.

Your plan value

Current value on 21 March 2012	£29,532.41
--------------------------------	------------

The current value is the amount you could have transferred to another plan on 21 March 2012. This amount is not guaranteed.

Payments into your plan in the last 12 months

Pension payments	£0.00
------------------	-------

What you might get back when you retire

This illustration shows what you might get back when you retire, if it was reduced by future inflation. The amounts are not guaranteed.

There's more information on the page titled 'What you might get back when you retire'. It's important you read the sections 'Information about these figures' and 'Information about your investment growth rates' which show details of the assumptions we've used.
