2. Anti-money laundering requirements

Investec Bank plc is obliged to obtain documents as per the following sections prior to opening any Account. In doing so, this will prevent any unnecessary delay in opening the Account. You will be required to fill out Section A and the following section dependent upon your account type.

Account type

Company:	Section B
Trust:	Section C
Pension scheme:	Section D
Partnerships (excluding limited liability partnerships):	Section E
Sole traders:	Section F
Limited liability partnerships:	Section G
Charities:	Section H
Societies/Clubs/Associations:	Section I

Note: Authorised certifying bodies

For UK individuals, a person from one of the following professions may certify documents: Private banker, Lawyer, Accountant, Bank manager, Notary public or Embassy official. For non-UK individuals a person from one of the following professions may certify documents: an embassy official, a lawyer or attorney. Certification should bear the stamp of office, be dated and signed by the certifying person stating 'original seen', and note the name, address and position of the certifying person. The certifier should be a person/organisation of reputable standing who is independent of each Account Holder and who has no connection with the Applicant(s) wishing to open the account.

Note: Use of introduction certificates

The requirements in sections B for Companies, C for Trusts, D for Pension schemes, E for Partnerships (excluding limited liability partnerships), F for Sole traders, G for Limited liability partnerships, H for Charities and I for Societies/Clubs/Associations may be satisfied using a Group Introduction Certificate as set out in Section J – for internal use only. Non-Investec introduction certificates may only be accepted with an Investec money laundering reporting officer's (MLRO) approval.

PO Box addresses

Documents confirming an address that list a PO Box can only be accepted with certified evidence (see above) linking the PO Box to the residential address given in the account application form.

Guarantors

Any party providing a guarantee as collateral to a loan account will be required to be subject to the same level of anti-money laundering checks as the Account Holder.
