Hi Paresh,

Can you kindly provide me with a copy of the end of year tax certificate for SJP policies held by the scheme, together with a current market valuation of the policies.

If you do not have these tax certificates available an interim value of the SJP policies will suffice.

I will then be able to complete the payment of lump sum benefits for Russell.

Many thanks

Gavin

Thanks Paresh for the response.

The pension scheme loan for tax free cash purposes does remain an asset of the scheme, plus the company obtains tax relief on the interest payments. The loan will be included within the lump sum calculation.

I will complete the pension scheme returns now and confirm the lump sum payment on 1st.

Russell, can you provide me with your bank details on where you wish the tax lump sum to be paid.

Kind regards

Gavin

Hi Gavin,

If it's okay I will put some of the money in my current account and the rest in my joint deposit account (both accounts are with the Royal Bank of Scotland). When you confirm the amount of the tax free sum tomorrow I will email exact bank details along with the breakdown of how much I put into each account.

I am assuming my account Jan will transfer the money from the funds deposit account so I will get her to email the details.

Hi Paresh,

I hope that you are keeping well.

We have received the bank statements from Jan at Russell's office, which I am working through tonight and tomorrow. I will make some adjustments in respect of the loan account. In respect of the funds with NPI, Old Mutual and Countrywide can you let me have a valuation of these policies as at 5 April.

Please advise if any new contributions we made to the investment holdings you manage.

Many thanks

Gavin
