Dear Brad

I hope you are well. Could you please note that I have moved again - my new address and telephone number are as above.

I have received a letter from your accounts department dated 13.5.11, enclosing a copy invoice dated 10.3.11, chasing payment because it is overdue. I have never received the original invoice. If you sent it by post it was never received and there is absolutely no chance that it went astray when I moved because I only moved at the beginning of April and have full postal redirection for all items, which has been working well. I suspect that you might have sent it by email and I further suspect that you sent it to an incorrect email address, which we changed in October 2010 and of which we informed you. The correct email address since October 2010 is as above. Please check your records and amend if that earlier notification has not been implemented.

Of course I will pay your bill, but I am a bit peeved as I have told you on two separate occasions that there is outstanding documentation required from

Gavin in respect of the creation of the loan document from Abbeyfield 2 to Industrial and Commercial Investments and the registration of the mortgage charge when the almost-finished house was transferred to ICI in the autumn of 2010.

It would be nice not to have to chase up the provision of the proper services for which I have already paid.

Best wishes

John J Boulter
