Data Protection Act 1998 – Reminder to Renew

Your register entry Z6314303 has an expiry date of 17 October 2012.

Tiered notification fees have been introduced by the Ministry of Justice and are effective for all register entries that fail for renewal from 1 October 2009.

A data controller now has to make an assessment to determine which tier it falls within, and hence the fee it is required to pay. You should complete the form overleaf and return it with your fee.

Full guidance and information regarding the fee change and the completion of the form can be found in the enclosed booklet.

If any of the name and/or address details within your entry have changed, or if notification is no longer required, please refer to the enclosed alteration form.

If you require any other amendments to be made to your register entry you should write to the Changes Team (address overleaf) giving details or download our Changes Form from the Internet (www.ico.gov.uk).

If the data controller is no longer required to notify under the Data Protection Act 1998 you should complete the form overleaf.

* Changes in Data Controller Name / Company Registration Number

A change in name may be due to a change in the legal entity of the data controller. Examples are when a sole trader becomes a partnership or a partnership becomes a limited company. A change of company registration number would also constitute a change in the legal entity of the data controller.

It is not possible to transfer a register entry from one legal entity to another. In these cases the entry can not be renewed and you will need to telephone the notification help line (01625 545740) to start the process of making a new application to notify. Alternatively you can start the process by completing a notification form on-line at www.ico.gov.uk

Removal of Register Entry : Z6314303

Notification is not required because:-

1. The data controller ceased trading on _____ (Date)
2. Personal information is no longer being processed on an automated system such as a computer. ☐
3. All of the data controller's processing is covered by one or more of the notification exemptions (for more information please visit www.ico.gov.uk). Please tick which exemption(s) you are relying on.

The data controller is only processing personal data for;

- ☐ their own accounts and records
- ☐ their own staff administration (including payroll)
- ☐ their own advertising, marketing & public relations
- ☐ personal, family or household affairs (including recreational purposes)

The data controller is a not-for-profit organisation and complies fully with the conditions of the not-for-profit exemption. ☐

If you have ticked any of the boxes above you should state the reason(s) why personal information is no longer being processed OR why you are now relying on one or more of the notification exemptions.

Declaration

To the best of my knowledge and belief, the particulars given in this form and on any continuation sheets are correct and complete. I confirm that I am the Data Controller named overleaf or that I am authorised to act on behalf of the Data Controller.
