Hi Esther

Please see below thread so far with Quartermain

As you will see they're preparing their paperwork and will forward over as soon as received

Kind regards

Pete

Thanks for the quick reply.

What are those fees and probably best to deduct from the cash element that exists?

But not sure where we got to with the cash, is it sitting in Quartermain account or in cash within the Bond?

Kind regards

Pete

Hi Peter

I will prepare the paperwork – how would you like us to settle this years administration fee which fell due last month and the transfer out fee? A withdrawal from the policy?

Regards,

Mark

Hi Mark

Hope all is well

I have opened a SSAS through Cranfords here in the U.K.

After many months the HMRC have just approved the scheme and we now wish to transfer the Qrops over to the ssas

I believe there is the cash holding plus the RL360 bond.

Can you reply with any documents you require the SSAS administrators to complete

Many thanks Mark

Kind regards

Pete
