Dear Mr McCloskey

Review decision

Your initial request for a review was not received within 28 days of the notice issue date and is therefore deemed out of time. However, the Regulator has decided to initiate a review of the above notices under section 43(1)(b) Pensions Act 2008.

We have decided to revoke the notices for the following reason(s):

The Regulator is satisfied that the notices were not correctly addressed and is therefore deemed as being incorrectly served. As a result, the notices have been revoked.

Therefore Registered Scheme Administrators Limited no longer need to comply with the requirements of the notices.

Our records indicate that the Declaration of Compliance has been completed and therefore Registered Scheme Administrators Limited is now compliant with the Automatic Enrolment duties.

If this decision relates to a penalty notice we will shortly be issuing a refund for any part of the penalty that may have been paid.

Yours sincerely

The Pensions Regulator review team
