Re: Subject Access Request

Dear Sirs,

Anthony Philip James & Co act on behalf of Mr Leon James and we have been instructed to request the clients personal data pursuant to Article 15 of the EU General Data Protection Regulation ("GDPR"), specifically in relation to our client's pensions and investments. We enclose a signed form of authority for your records.

Given this letter constitutes a valid data request we will not consider any additional "application" or "access" forms and therefore, we expect a response within one calendar month of receipt of this letter as permitted by the ICO. In order to simplify compliance with this request please forward any response and data electronically to datagathering@apjsolicitors.co.uk.

Please do not contact the customer directly or send them the requested information given we have provided you with a valid letter of authority.

We look forward to receiving your response within one calendar month from receipt of this request.

Yours faithfully
